NHAVIE

BIOGRAPHY:

Acha Stephen Nnamdi professionally known as Nhavie is an Afro-fusion singer and songwriter, born 5th of May, 2001 in Lagos State, Nigeria. He attended his junior and senior Secondary school in Ogombo and Okun Ajah town respectively in Lagos State.

The artiste is currently signed to DezBilly entertainment. His musical journey, has been inspired by a series of Afrobeats icons like, Burna boy and Tuface Idibia, to mention but a few. He originally found himself strongly in the void of music, generally around 2017 and ever since then, his hunger for the creation of melodies has been undeniable.

SINGLES:

His first official body of work came out in 2022. In 2022, the rising star released his first single 'Chase Me' on the 9th of September. In the year 2024, he is set to release two new hit singles soon enough. These singles are; 'Wickedest' and 'Resilience'.

MUSIC STYLE:

Sweetest

A silhouette of a man with dreadlocks stands next to a motorcycle. The scene is lit with a warm, orange glow, creating a dramatic and moody atmosphere. The man is looking down at the motorcycle, and the background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Nhavia considers himself an artist of dynamic and diversity, putting more focus on the lyrics and its delivery, paying a great deal of caution to his storyline. He seeks to preach to his listeners and gives poetic songs, holding an in-depth conversation between him and his pen.
